Ransom Spirits was started by Tad Seestedt in 1997 with a small life savings and a fistful of credit cards. The name was chosen to represent the debt incurred to start the business -

Tad was paying his own ransom to realize his dream.

Initially, the distillery made small amounts of grappa, eau de vie & brandy and began the production of a number of small-batch fine wines in 1999 followed by grain-based spirits in 2007. Now both winery and distillery are located on a 40 acre certified organic farm just outside Sheridan, in Oregon's Willamette Valley.
